- Expenditures
  - 0
- Income
  - 0
- Online banking status to be updated

Treasury Report - There is in excess of £8000 in the bank. One cheque from last statement had been cashed from the schools, the other outstanding.

Upper Criggie wind farm - These have been sporadic but have been made.

Planning Applications

April Planning
Applications

Key Application Points

- During this period there was four new applications were submitted and one application was approved.
- Update on planned caravan site between the A92 and the sea

Correspondence

- Emma Storey (Aberdeenshire Council) – Aberdeenshire Autism Strategy engagement phase until end June 2022
- Emma Storey (Aberdeenshire Council) – Tour of Britain
- Judith Macgregor (Convention of Scottish Local Authorities (COSLA)) – Twin opportunity with Châtillon-sur-Indre

It was noted that there was no interest from the community council to Twin any village in our area due to our size.

Correspondence

- KDP – Coastal Path from St Cyrus to Cullen launch event on Thursday 19th May at Macphie Ltd, Glenbervie from 5:30pm

Roads and Transport

- Catterline harbour road and signage update
- Aberdeenshire car parking charges now has multiple payment options

It was noted that there are concerns regarding the Stonehaven transport survey where it appeared that the questions were more like ideas going to happen and as such, this was just part of the process despite many disagreeing with them.

Catterline Braes & Operandum

- Spring maintenance to be conducted

JBA started work on the coastal erosion study in Catterline.

Any Other Business

- Elections

Next meeting Tuesday 31st May 2022

ACTION Duncan - Confirm that there are only two spaces available with a further two potentially available for the elections

Our community council area is split between 2 Aberdeenshire Council wards with the dividing line being the Catterline Burn.

It was confirmed that both our Chairman and Vice-Chair will likely not be available for the next meeting on Tuesday 31st May. Once confirmed, it will be proposed to move to alternative date.
