Youth Antisocial Behaviour Initiative – Stonehaven, Laurencekirk & Portlethen

Hello everyone!

I am PC McEwan and I work at Stonehaven Police Station- my job is to stop and prevent crimes.

I enjoy working with members of the public and engaging with youths within the local community.

Over the summer holidays, Police will be running an operation which tackles Youth Antisocial Behaviour.

What is antisocial behaviour?

Antisocial behaviour relates to ongoing and persistent activity by someone or a group of people, which causes distress, alarm or harassment to people in a separate household.

For example, littering, nuisance noise, intimidation, rowdy or inconsiderate behaviour (etc).

OFFICIAL

What does this mean for you?

This should have a minimal impact on you and you will get to enjoy your summer holidays.

However, Police may;

- May stop and speak to you.
- May take your details to record it on our Police systems. (only if suspected or caught being involved in Antisocial behaviour)
- Carry out high visibility patrols in areas known to have youth antisocial disorder.

In meant time, if you see Police on patrol, feel free to come and say hi!

Many thanks,

Inspector Rhona Di Meola
